

Decisional Balance Worksheet

When we think about making changes, most of us don't really consider all "sides" in a complete way. Instead, we often do what we think we "should" do, avoid doing things we don't feel like doing, or just feel confused or overwhelmed and give up thinking about it at all. Thinking through the pros and cons of both changing and not making a change is one way to help us make sure we have fully considered a possible change. This can help us to "hang on" to our plan in times of stress or temptation. Below, write in the reasons that you can think of in each of the boxes. For most people, "making a change" will probably mean quitting alcohol and drugs, but it is important that you consider what specific change you might want to make, which may be something else.
